

Hixson Carmike Cinema To Show Open-Captioned Movie

It has been more than five years since hard of hearing Chattanoogaans have experienced a first-run movie on the "big screen" with open-captions, fresh popcorn and sodas.

Thanks to Todd Coffman, theatre manager of Carmike at Northgate and the persistence of Jed Mescon, area Chattanoogaans are about to enjoy an open-captioned new movie starring Angelina Jolie and Morgan Freeman in "Wanted."

If just having this movie is a treat, there is more...the movies will be shown on two consecutive days...Sunday, August 24 and Monday, August 25 at both the 4:00 and 7:00pm showings. Movie goers don't have to be hard of hearing to enjoy the movie, it is open to everyone!

Co-sponsored by Chattanooga State, movie goers also will be able to discuss lucrative careers in broadcast captioning, CART and court reporting with program director Laqueta Soule!
